

Overcoming Resume Roadblocks: Navigate the job market and get the results YOU want

Are you looking for a new position and don't know where to start?

Do you want to make a career transition, and are worried about how you will manage it financially?

Would you like to know what your dream job is and increase your chances of being interviewed for it?

Would you like to know some of the secrets that recruiters use when short listing?

Jennifer Collier, Career Coach and Director from Incite Coaching, gives you invaluable information for your career transition. She will share secrets from the recruitment industry to ensure that you know get the results you want from your career transition.

- Learn proven strategies to compel the reader of your resume to continue reading within the first 3-5 seconds
- Gain access to the inner workings of the HR and recruitment industry so that you can maximise your chances of success
- Learn how to read a job advert to know EXACTLY what the recruiter is looking for, so that you can ensure that you sell your most relevant skills
- Explore resume layouts that work!

Special:

- Naomi Rosenthal, Director of Tudor Investassure, gives you insights about how best to manage finances throughout your transition and the best way to invest redundancy payouts.

When and Where:

Date: Tuesday 18th August 2009
ING Offices
347 Kent Street
Sydney

How much?

Tickets cost $80 each
Register before 12th August and save $30. 2 hours of invaluable information for just $50!

Get the results YOU want and email jennifer@incitecoaching.com.au or contact Jennifer Collier on 02 9560 4407 to save your spot now.